The second Taiwan - Japan Joint Conference on Differential Geometry

Time: November 1-5,2019
Venue: NCTS, National Taiwan University

Aim & Scope:

The purpose of the second Taiwan-Japan Joint Conference on Differential Geometry is to develop collaboration, foster discussions and interactions between the differential geometry communities of Taiwan and Japan. It will be held every two years. The second conference will be held at National Center of Theoretical Sciences, National Taiwan University, Taiwan, November 1st-5th 2019 (Friday-Tuesday).

Invited Speakers:

Kurando Baba	Tokyo University of Science
Chen-Yu Chi	National Taiwan University
Hung-Lin Chiu	National Tsing Hua University
Sheng-Fu Chiu	Academia Sinica
Yasushi Homma	Waseda University
Toru Kajigaya	Tokyo Denki University
Yoshinobu Kamishima	Josai University
Kotaro Kawai	Gakushuin University
Keita Kunikawa	Tohoku University AIMR
Ulrich Menne	National Taiwan Normal Universty
Koichi Nagano	University of Tsukuba
Yasuyuki Nagatomo	Meiji University
Shin-ichi Ohta	Osaka University
Michiaki Onodera	Tokyo Institute of Technology
Wei-Bo Su	National Taiwan University
Ryosuke Takahashi	Kyoto University RIMS & OCAMI
Ryosuke Takahashi	National Cheng Kung University
Makiko Sumi Tanaka	Tokyo University of Science
Ye-Kai Wang	National Cheng Kung University
Siye Wu	National Tsing Hua University

Organizing Committee:

Shu-Cheng Chang	National Taiwan University
Qing-Ming Cheng	Fukuoka University
River Chiang	National Cheng Kung University
Martin A. Guest	Waseda University
Nan-Kuo Ho	National Tsing Hua University
Miyuki Koiso	IMI, Kyushu University, Japan
Yng-Ing Lee	National Taiwan University
Yoshihiro Ohnita	Osaka City University & Advanced Mathematical Institute
Takashi Shioya	Tohoku University
Mao-Pei Tsui	National Taiwan University
Sumio Yamada	Gakushuin University
